

Parents in Partnership Meeting 19.03.24

Item	Notes	Response	Action
Clubs	If children attend an extracurricular club, can the after school club (Owls) be offered at a discounted rate?	Sadly not, Owls needs to be staffed for the full session.
World Book day	As there are other dress-up days I the school calendar, e.g. Viking day and Greek day – could the option be given for World Book Day?	The school are happy to offer this as an option to children for WBD 2025. Other suggestions such as props etc. also to be offered.	Information to go out nearer the time offering option to dress up.
Book fair	Some parents feel pressure to buy the book fair books with the wish list coming home.	The children are told that they may not be able to get all of the books on their list. The Book fair does raise a huge amount of money for the school and this is invested in the books the children have access to.	Mrs Linnegar will look into whether the parents could search for a book on the scholastic website to aid the choice of which books to buy.
Lunch time play	Can there be more structured play opportunities at lunch time with a focus on social interaction?	The school had a member of staff who ran 'Power Half Hour' last year and when fully staffed, structured games are available in the quiet area.	Miss Cooper is going to instruct her Sports Crew to facilitate structured games for 'Power Half Hour' at lunch time.
Nits	Can any more guidance go out to parents as this is a recurring problem?	The school have sent out reminders to parents and links to more information including how regularly to check/ how to	The office will continue to send out reminders and include treat etc. Staff are vigilant at making sure that long hair is tied up.	information in the newsletter.

Daily Mile	Is this something that should happen daily? It is not always happening consistently in every class.	Not necessarily, 'The Daily Mile' was an initiative brought in a few years ago to boost physical activity and fitness. It is now used as a 'brain break' opportunity and staff will decide which brain break is most suitable as it is used to help increase focus especially in the afternoons.
SATs and PGL	Will there be more information on the running of SATs and PGL?	Yes, information will go out on this nearer the time.	Information to be included in the newsletter.
Items responded to from email following meeting
Changing of books process	Can the process of changing books be shared with parents as some children are not changing their book regularly?	Children are given the opportunity to change their books daily. Please write a note in your child's planner if this is not the case as some children may need some individual prompting.
Selection of children for sports representation	How are children chosen to represent the school in a sports fixture?	Every effort is made to give as many pupils as possible this opportunity. Factors include but are not limited to: -the type of fixture it is (fixtures may stipulate who it

		is designed for ability/age wise etc.) -whether the fixture is a follow-up to a previous round All children take part in competitive inter-house competitions once per term in school.
Team points for reading	Some children are not being awarded team points for reading 6 or 7 times per week.	This has recently been confirmed amongst staff – 1 team point for 6 times and 2 team points for 7.	Staff to be reminded.
